Indigenous Services

Our Programs

There are two programs that are offered through EveryMan Indigenous Services.

Indigenous Supported Accommodation

This program supports Indigenous families at risk of homelessness with:

- Finding permanent accommodation,
- Centrelink business
- Legal matters
- Accessing culturally appropriate services,
- Advocacy on behalf of clients.

Indigenous Boarding House

Shared Accommodation for Indigenous people who have relocated to the ACT from other areas to commence study or employment.

Criteria

Anyone wanting to apply for these programs must be of Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander descent (Confirmation of Aboriginality will be required)

Program Entry Process

Indigenous Supported Accommodation

Call Onelink on 1800 176 468 to give them your information and they will make a referral to EveryMan on your behalf.

Referring agencies must send their referral form to Onelink at info@onelink.org.au or fax to (02) 6285 1322.

Indigenous Boarding House

You can contact us directly to make a request for accommodation on 02 6230 6999, or an education institution or employment service may refer you.

Referring agencies can find our referral form on our website at www.everyman.org.au

Referral applications are reviewed by EveryMan weekly. This allows us to prioritise based on need.

Program Access Cost

There are no fees to access these services. However, you will need to pay rent two weeks in advance.

Don't know where to start?

Call us during office hours on (02) 6230 6999 and we can provide you with the Information you need, whether it's about our services, how to make a referral, or to find out if you're eligible.
